RAILROADS SAVE TIME FOR CARS

The Union railway made a saving of 3,000 car hours as a result of its activities Sunday in clearing its yards and sidetracks of all freight cars that it could possibly return to service. Sunday is being observed by all the local lines as "clean-up" day in accordance with the program of the car conservation adopted by the Memphis district operating committee, but the report of the other lines was not available.

The saving of the Union railway is equivalent to 16 cars for one day, or to a train of 25 cars for one week.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH
Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air comes in, your head is clear, you can breathe freely. No more hacking, muffled, mucous discharge, headache, dizziness, no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone. Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Begy's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every crevice of the head, soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Begy's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head and ear noises or are growing hard of hearing go to your druggist and get a ounce of Parnell (double strength), and add to it a pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to become, more little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this preparation a trial.

IS THERE ANY CORSETS? YES

At Least That's What Prof. Munter Claims in "Clinic"

Staged at Bry's.

BY MEMORY M'CORD.

Softly they trooped out—three young girls dressed in evening gowns and effects, through which glistened pretty and fresh-colored corsets.

Behind me sat a huge looking person who gave me a self-satisfied grin and settled himself to enjoy the afternoon's entertainment.

Plaintively from somewhere came the tones of dreamy waltz music, and carefully the girls danced. One of the performers was stout and one thin. I noticed, however, that the other resembled the mother bear in the fairy tale, being sort of medium.

I was late, rudely so, but so were other women and men who trooped in with a mixture of interest and doubt registered upon their faces. It was a little unusual—the afternoon entertainment—though that usually featured the movies and local playhouses. It was—ah-hem—a lecture upon corsets, given in the lecture room, third floor, Bry's department store, by Prof. Charles Munter.

Who in the world is he? Well, time was when he was a tuberculosis patient residing in Denver, waiting only to die. It was then that he got the corset idea. He was a man who carelessly slipped his pillow under his shoulder instead of his head.

"I'll move it," he afterward said, but Munter objected, "It feels better this way," he insisted.

And gradually he began to forget his pain in planning to construct something that would cure the aches and ills of the human race. Finally he decided to leave bed for work and for the short time that was left him, for he had been given four months in which to die.

So dismissing even the services of a nurse, he left Denver and traveled eastward. In the big cities of the West he met people who laughed at his idea that half way between the neck and the end of the spine is the human center of gravity. Large pattern manufacturers refused to consider his proposition and shrugged when he explained his views concerning the matter. At last, however, after he had fashioned a model himself—a crude torso-like thing that portrayed his notion of corsets—an Eastern manufacturer reconsidered and attempted the pattern.

That was about seven years ago. Since that time Prof. Munter's invention has spread throughout the East and West and is even now creeping South. "It's a comfortable corset that adjusts and straightens the bones," he explained yesterday, "and its powers have been tested by X-ray."

It is a queer model because the tighter you wear the thing the freer you feel. It is made about ladies' slender, and slender ladies find it all it depends simply upon a matter of breath. My invention teaches one to breathe.

I gaped—thin ladies fat—no I didn't believe I dared still another girl and then there came the corset inventor and his assistant, Miss Dupont, effected the transformation. It was a sort of the invention had of causing the chest to extend and settling the shoulders properly.

A fat lady was worked on, also, and she came out beautifully cured and graceful-looking and she insisted she felt thoroughly comfortable. The whole thing was remarkable.

"War has killed thousands, but corsets have murdered millions. Munter said yesterday, "and the only cure about the thing is that the model fits snugly and allows the wearer to breathe easily and naturally. Besides, it cures the—has made me a well man—yes, I wear a gentleman's edition myself."

He calls his invention the "Nipper" corset, and will lecture upon it at Bry's each afternoon this week.

GETTING CONVENIENT FOR PARCEL POST TRADE

Rural Housewives to Furnish Eggs and Butter for City Housewives.

Champaign to secure the names of rural housewives in Eastern Arkansas and Northern Mississippi who can furnish two or three dozen eggs and two or three pounds of butter a week to housewives in Memphis by parcel post, have been inaugurated by C. W. Watson, market director for the Chamber of Commerce farm bureau, through Miss Connie J. Bensinger, of Little Rock, state home demonstration agent for Arkansas, and Miss Susie V. Powell, assistant director of home demonstration work in Mississippi. Mr. Watson states that he has many numbers of letters from housewives of Memphis who desire to form such connections with rural housewives.

The letters were received from Memphis housewives following an announcement in The News-Scimitar that Mr. Watson was working out a plan for producer-to-consumer trading in rural products. Mr. Watson stated that he has many numbers of letters from housewives of Memphis who desire to form such connections with rural housewives.

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN THE PERFECT LAXATIVE

The Quick Way to Stop a Cough

This home-made syrup does the work in a hurry. Easily prepared, and saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few minutes. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant. Cool—children like it—and it is pure.

Pour 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly seals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes of the throat.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You can Bring Back Color and Lustre with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Viveth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning, the gray hair disappears and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and soft.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Viveth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. adv.
